Dear Friends in Christ;

“To this end we pray for you...that the name of our Lord Jesus be glorified in you.”

.....II Thessalonians 1:11 & 12

November is such an exciting month in our church. The first Sunday of the month is All Saints Sunday. On all saints we remember Gods work in us all to make us true saints of God. We sing the hymns of heaven. As we worship we are joined with all those who now worship in the near presence of God.

This year November is Stewardship Month, the time when we commit ourselves to giving and serving. The stewardship (management) of our lives for the glory of God is such a privilege. We will be watching short video vignettes of people telling about their walk with Jesus Christ. The month ends with Christ the King Sunday when we remember that Jesus Christ is King and Lord of all creation. This Jesus Christ, who was born in a humble stable, walked this earth teaching, healing and being the love of God made human, will come again to renew all things and claim his own.

May God bless you in your worship,
Pastor Peterson

Halloween/All Saints to Christ the King and the Time In Between

The early church recognized many of the early Saints, and each were given their own feast day. Examples include: June 29th Peter and Paul Apostles, August 15th Mary Mother of God, September 29th Michael and All Angels, December 26th Stephen the First Christian Martyr and December 27 John Apostle and Evangelist. November 1st is the day when we recognize all saints, whether they have their own day or not. The origin of the festival of All Saints celebrated in the West dates to 13 May 609 or 610, when Pope Boniface IV consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Blessed Virgin and all the martyrs; the feast has been celebrated at Rome ever since.

In Western Christianity, All Souls' Day, also known as the Commemoration of All Faithful Departed, is observed principally in the Catholic Church, although some churches of Anglican Communion and the Old Catholic Churches also celebrate it; the observance occurs on Nov. 2. Our Lutheran worship now combines both of these days into one. We sing "For all the saints who from their labors rest", but also remember our own dear departed loved ones.

The Feast of Christ the King, properly the Solemnity of Christ the King, is a relatively recent addition to the western liturgical calendar, having been instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. In 1970 its observance was moved to the last Sunday of the Church year and adopted by Anglicans, Lutherans, and many other Protestants. Again the church, in the readings for the day, gives us a glimpse of Christ on his throne and surrounded by guess who? All Saints!

During November, in between these two looks into heaven and All the Saints, the church will treat us to several weeks of readings leading toward the end times. November 17 will give us Luke's warnings about the "frightening signs and events" that are coming.

Please take the time to enjoy, listen, meditate and pray during this introspective time in the church year.

A Word on Stewardship

Stewardship is about more than money. But it is about money. Your use of money and your other possessions are an important part of your discipleship as followers of Jesus. The word "steward" comes from the Anglo-Saxon term "sty warden," the person who took care of the pig sty! The term has evolved to describe anyone who is the keeper of another person's possessions. We are the stewards of all that we are, and all that we have, blessings from God! These include your time, attention, physical health, energy, talents, possessions, attitudes, relationships, and money! That includes the sharing of your financial resources to support the ministry of the church.

When you are invited into "stewardship," you are invited into the will of God for the world, as revealed in the Scriptures and especially in Jesus. What a privilege! Stewardship is an important daily activity in the life of a disciple of Jesus. He spoke throughout the Gospels about money and possessions. Mostly he warned about the power and ability of possessions to separate you from your relationship with God. Your possessions have the power to get in the way of your relationship with God. You might look to them for security, put your trust in them, and therefore treat them as idols worthy of worship. Your possessions may be joined in this idolatry by your work, your recreation, or your use of time when they replace your relationship with God! Do you find yourself under pressure to over-extend and find yourself over-scheduled, over-worked, over-spent, and over-committed? You may long for a slower-paced calendar, for simpler times, for less busyness.

The annual response is a focused period of time when the life of our congregation is centered on a stewardship response program. This includes an opportunity for congregational members to indicate through a Commitment Card what their anticipated giving, based on the blessings they have received from God, will be to support the ministry of the congregation for the coming year. The purpose of the annual response or commitment, is to encourage the congregation members to consider, prayerfully and mindfully, their stewardship of the blessings they have received.

We must remember that Stewardship is not just during the month of November, but every day of the year. We are growing as disciples of Jesus, strengthening our faith practices, and together, encourage generosity in the faithful stewardship of God's abundant blessings!

Lavone Reis -

Stewardship Chairperson, First Lutheran

MAKE IT SIMPLE

"Simple", the opposite of complicated! How often do we think that life has become too complicated, and long for a more simple way of life? What does "simple" mean to you? Read the following quotes. What do they mean at this point in your life?

Quotation 1: "I have learned to be content with whatever I have. I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me". (from Phil. 4:11b-31)

Quotation 2: "Sometimes we become the flimsies people. We vest our hopes in the "fleeting flimsies" of this life - a new car, new clothes, new equipment. Our search for hope is sufficiently desperate that we cannot see hope in the present, the immediate, or distant future. We do not even see hope beyond the river. When we feel cut off from all of these sources of hope, we move from one fleeting flimsy moment to the next, seeking solace in the material things of this life. The problem of our time is primarily a vacuum of hope, not a focus on materialism. People invest their hopes in material things not because they think there is something enduring in them but because they are looking for hope - even when it is fleeting, flimsy, and momentary". (from writings by Rev. Kennon Callahan)

Quotation 3: "Simplicity sets us free to receive the provision of God as a gift that is not ours to keep, and that can be freely shared with others". (from Celebration of Discipline, by Richard J. Foster) Simplicity is more than time management, quality time versus quantity time, self-care versus social reform. It requires us to become more focused and to serve on God instead of many. Simplicity coaxes change in the core of our being.

MAKE IT SIMPLE is the subject for the our Stewardship Campaigns beginning the first weekend in November (Nov.2-3, 2013). There will be four themes: Following Jesus, Acting Together, Facing the Truth, and Sharing Enough.

Covered by Prayer

As a battle raged around them, soldiers huddled in a trench during the Vietnam War. Their commander had ordered them to stay put, but one soldier noticed a buddy lying wounded in an open area, crying for help. The soldier in the trench kept checking the time. Suddenly, he dashed for his injured friend, bringing him back to safety.

When the commander asked his daring soldier why he'd risked his life this way, the soldier said his mom had promised to pray for him at the same time every day. Because he knew he was covered in prayer, he had the courage to save his friend.

—Ellen Banks Elwell,
The Christian Mom's Idea Book

ROLL WITH IT!

Are you wondering what the little blocks are all about? They're prayer cubes - a fun way to enrich the prayer climate in your home.  There are three cubes. Each of the three have 6 prayers: 6 bedtime, 6 mealttime, and 6 friendship. Use your imagination for ways to use them! They will be available at Saturday and Sunday services, and through the office. They are $3.00 each or, for a set of three, $9.00 or the special donation of $10.00! Proceeds from the sale of the cubes go toward First Lutheran's General Fund to cover the cost of the cubes.

The cubes would make wonderful gifts for family, friends, neighbors, teachers, etc. They could be stocking stuffers, tucked in with another gift, or be a gift by themselves. They would be something different and help to enrich the prayer life of those you love, care for, or your family!

In Numbers 17:1-8, God settles a dispute among the Israelites by directing Moses to obtain a staff from each of Israel's 12 tribes and to place the staffs in the Tent of Meeting. The one representing the tribe God chose would sprout. The next day, not only had the staff of Aaron, representing the tribe of Levi, sprouted, but it had blossomed and borne ripe almonds. Thus, the almond came to symbolize God's approval. By extension, it has also been used as a symbol of the Virgin Mary, who found divine favor and was chosen to bear God's Son.

Simply Giving Thanks

- Thanks to our congregations, friends of our congregation and community partners for the continuing support of our food pantry. Each week we provide 35-50 bags of non-perishable food to local families and have available free bread, fresh vegetables and dairy products for our visitors. Much of the non-perishable food is received through local organizations such as the Women's Club, other churches, School food drives, community food drives and vendor donations.

- Thanks to generous local food donors such as GFS Marketplace, Brownberry, Pick n Save and Feeding America. Their donations or discounts allow us to serve lunch to about 100 visitors each week (thank goodness we have a big refrigerator and freezer!)

- Thanks to the Thrivent Foundation for selecting us to receive an Economic Outreach Grant, to All Saints Lutheran Church for partnering us in on the Post Office food drive, to Heritage Senior Living for sharing proceeds from 3 lunches and dinners and to our "Souper hero" walkers who raised $427 for our Feeding America account .

- Thank God for all of our volunteer shoppers, kitchen staff and food donors who commit their time to cook, serve and clean up every week. Thank God for Pastor Peterson who welcomes and cares for those who struggle with life.

We'd like to give a special "Thank you" to Barbara Bayer and Ralph for all they've done to support this ministry. Barb served as our Treasurer for many years and recently passed away. She will be missed.

We are thankful for all of the ways that God has blessed our food pantry and we are honored to serve our community.

Thanks to the following members and friends of First Lutheran/Nativity who have donated or prepared food for the food pantry lunches in the past month: Peggy and Glen Phillips, Pat and Mike Temke, Delores Hurst, Natalie Jaeger, Cindy Labadie, Jamie Schoberg, Carol Leonard, Judi Mueller, and John Hrovat and his farmer friend (we love fresh veggies).
