“Reaching out in our community to share the Word of God”
Dear Friends;

“The Lord has risen indeed!”

Luke 24:34

This is our Easter greeting and the reason for our joy. Jesus, the one who was born in Bethlehem to Mary, has conquered death. He was killed by being crucified and buried, but on Easter morning all the power of God was made manifest and he was raised from the dead. He had conquered death for all of us. Every Sunday we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus, the Son of God, but on Easter Sunday we highlight it even more. On Easter Sunday we will sing the hymns of the Resurrection and dress in white to remember the purity of Christ. We will have Easter lilies and other spring flowers in church. Bring the whole family and come to be part of the celebration.

During Holy Week we have worship services on both Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. On Thursday we remember Jesus’ last meal with the disciples and the institution of Holy Communion. On Good Friday we remember the suffering and death of Jesus on the cross. This is our story. Come and be part of it.

See you in Church,

Greetings, Friends in Christ,

As you know, we are in the Lenten Season. I think that this is one of the most special parts of our church year. During the Advent season, we joyfully anticipate the coming of our Lord’s birthday anniversary; but the Lenten season gives us time to reflect on Christ’s sacrifice for us and to examine our relationship with Him.

Is our relationship with Christ a close one? Or is it lacking, and just a bit “shaky”? Do you go to church as often as you should? Do you pray daily? Are you into His word? How’s that Great Commandment doing in your life? (Love your neighbor as yourself). Each new day is an opportunity to do better.

I found this poem by Kent M. Keith some time ago. I’d like to share it with you. (Mother Theresa had it on the wall of her home for children in Calcutta, India.) May it inspire us all, in His service. Remember, Jesus Christ is our peace. He makes friends out of strangers, breaks down walls and builds all of us up to be His obedient children.

“The Paradoxical Commandments”
1. People are unreasonable, illogical and self-centered. Love them anyway.
2. If you do good, people accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Do good anyway.
3. If you are successful, you will win false friends and true enemies. Succeed anyway.
4. The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
5. Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. Be honest and frank anyway.
6. The biggest men and women with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest men and women with the smallest minds. Think big anyway.
7. People favor underdogs but follow only top dogs. Fight for a few underdogs anyway.
8. What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight. Build anyway.
9. People really need help but may attack you if you do help them. Help people anyway.
10. Give the world the best you have and you’ll get kicked in the teeth. Give the world the best you have anyway.

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway.

Have a peace-filled Easter,
Shirley Cogan

Palm Sunday Benefit Concert

Our Palm Sunday Benefit Concert will again feature vocalists Susan Platt & Gus Barnes, Jr. along with Organist/Accompanist Dennis Jon Wolfgang. They will also be joined by tenor Dennis Parker, a member of the Florentine Opera Chorus. Gus Barnes will be making his transition to full time ministry in the next couple of years; our hope is that Mr. Parker will be able to join us in our musical offerings.

Our special guests will be the Carson Chin Baptist Youth Choir, complete with ethnic clothing and art weavings. Learn about the Chin people, refugees from Myanmar (Burma) who have resettled their lives and families in the United States due to persecution and religious intolerance toward Christians in their homeland. Founding Senior Pastor Ron Nanuk will discuss their journey as a church and their homeland.

The concert will also feature:
“The Palms” by Faure
Three arias by Giacomo Puccini
Highlights from Andrew Lloyd Webbers “Jesus Christ Superstar”
Three Organ Compositions
Stephen Adams’ “The Holy City”

The reception following the concert will be a multicultural event featuring food from many cultures.

A free will offering will be accepted. Proceeds benefit First Lutheran’s handicapped accessibility fund, improving access for members and visitors to our food pantry. Donations of non-perishable food items accepted for our food pantry.

Jesus Christ Is Risen Today - ELW #365

Just as “Silent Night” or “O Come All Ye Faithful” bring immediate thoughts of Christmas when we hear the first strains, “Jesus Christ Is Risen Today” immediately invokes thoughts of Our Lord’s Resurrection. My hope was that there would be a wonderful story behind this hymn, but alas, we have the hymn’s great universal appeal but no great story.

This hymn originated in a 14th century Latin carol from Bohemia, on the text “Benedicamus Domino,” with just the first three verses as we have them in the hymnal. The text was actually found in three manuscripts from the fourteenth century, in Prague, in Engelberg and in Munich. It was translated into English by Nahum Tate (a poet laureate) and Nicholas Brady (an Anglican clergyman) and paired with the tune "Easter Hymn" in the book “Lyra Davidica” or a “Collection of Divine Songs and Hymns, partly new composed, partly translated from German and Latin Hymns; and set to easy and pleasant tunes” published by John Walsh, a famous printer, in 1708.

Then after major revisions and with new stanzas, it was published in Arnolds “Compleat Psalmodist” in 1779. The fourth stanza which begins, "Sing we to our God above," was written in 1740 by Charles Wesley and added much later — apparently long after the 1779 publication of “Compleat Psalmodist.”

The tune “Easter Hymn” or sometimes called “Worgan” appeared with the hymn in 1708 and was a more elaborate and florid melody. The tune went through numerous changes and simplifications as it passed through the last of the eighteenth century. The tune seems to have been quite popular, appearing in a number of English and, later American Hymn collections. It is sometimes attributed to a “Dr. Worgan,” and Henry Edward Dibdin in the preface to his “Standard Psalm Tune Book,” 1851, attributed it to Henry Carey.

The long and short of it is at this point we do not know who wrote either the text or the melody.

Did You Know?

A 20th-century Martyr

Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945) was born in Germany to parents who rarely took their children to church. When, at age 14, he declared his intent to become a theologian and pastor, his parents were dismayed. According to Mark Devine in Bonhoeffer Speaks Today, Dietrich’s brother called the church a “poor, feeble, boring, petty, bourgeois institution” — to which Dietrich replied, “If what you say is true, I shall reform it!”

At 21, Bonhoeffer earned a doctorate in theology. Too young for ordination, he attended Union Theological Seminary in New York and gained sympathy for oppressed people. Bonhoeffer returned to Germany and was ordained at age 25.

Opposed to Hitler’s rule from its start, Bonhoeffer helped form the Confessing Church in resistance to Nazi persecution of Jews. He was arrested in 1943 and hanged in April 1945, only weeks before Germany’s surrender.

Shortly before his death, Bonhoeffer famously declared: “This is the end — for me the beginning of life.”

"Behold ... the spring is come; the earth has gladly received the embraces of the sun, and we shall soon see the results of their love!” — Sitting Bull

The jug is back! Look for it in the Narthex and deposit your change, or bills! It was emptied to prevent potential problems. The total amount of money in the jug was: $264! Joyce Favre won a paczki for guessing the amount of money closest to the actual amount. Congratulations, Joyce! With a now empty jug, we will attempt to exceed the $264 at the next count. The paczki sale gave us a profit of $152. That plus the $264, will go into the Accessibility Fund.

Thank you for your donations!

Are you taking advantage of the opportunity to express your opinions, ideas, etc. concerning First Lutheran Church? We would like your input. One question has been presented each weekend of Lent. Parishioners are asked to anonymously write their answers on the sheet of paper and deposit in the colorful box in the narthex.

If you have not been in church, four of the questions are printed below. Please think about each question, answer each on a piece of paper, and return to the church. The following questions have been presented:

1. The things that concern me most about our congregation are:
2. If our congregation would________, I know that I would call my friends and tell what they are missing.
3. If our congregation did not continue to_______, I would lose interest in remaining a member.
4. If with a stroke of a pen, I could change one thing in our congregation, it would be:

There are two remaining questions which will be supplied in the church bulletin. We want YOUR thoughts and ideas! In conclusion, we will tabulate the answers and share them with you.

A. Two men in shining garments
B. A young man in a white robe
C. An angel
D. All of the above, depending on which gospel you read
Answer: (See Matthew 28:5-6; Mark 16:5-6; Luke 24:4-6.)

Something borrowed.... When a Sunday school teacher told her class that Jesus was buried in a borrowed tomb, one girl raised her hand to share an insight. “I know why,” the girl said. “It's because Jesus only used it for three days.”
