Reaching out in our community
to share the Word of God

Maundy Thursday, April 13
First Lutheran - 10:00 a.m. & 6:30 p.m.
Nativity Lutheran - 12:00 noon

Good Friday, April 14
First Lutheran - 10:00 a.m. & 6:30 p.m.
Nativity Lutheran - 1:00 p.m.

Easter Sunday, April 16
First Lutheran - 9:00 a.m.
Nativity Lutheran - 11:00 a.m.
Dear sisters and brothers,

You are created by God. You are called by Jesus. You are equipped by the Holy Spirit. These cannot be underscored enough. As a child of God you have the very Spirit of God living within you as you move throughout the world.

As we journey through Lent and move into the brightness of Easter morning we celebrate in the amazing gifts of grace, and forgiveness, and love we have received from God. For they truly are extravagant and undeserved gifts.

Which brings us to one of Jesus’ more familiar parables: The Prodigal Son. But what does the word ‘prodigal’ even mean? It’s not a common word in our daily vernacular and within the parable it’s not parsed out for us.

A few synonyms for ‘prodigal’ are: wasteful, excessive, lavish, generous, recklessly extravagant. We naturally assume these adjectives describe the son – a person who took what wasn’t his and completely spent every penny on worthless things until there was nothing left. The son spent his father’s money in a recklessly extravagant way.

But what if this parable also shows us how recklessly extravagant God is? Chapter 15 of Luke’s Gospel has three parables: The Lost Sheep, The Lost Coin, The Prodigal Son. Each one describes a situation where logic and reason are thwarted and upended by unreasonable and recklessly extravagant love.

99 sheep are left behind in search of 1. After a coin is found a celebration is thrown that probably cost more than the coin was even worth. And a father welcomes home two sons who don’t deserve or know why they’re being welcomed.

This idea of being recklessly extravagant brings us back to our initial idea: You are created by God. You are called by Jesus. You are equipped by the Holy Spirit. And God will seek you out, will wait, will forgive and love you to the point of it being uneconomical, wasteful, lavish, excessive, and recklessly extravagant.

God is concerned about you. And God will act in ways that seem very prodigal in order to show God’s love for you. Because you are created by God. Called by Jesus. Equipped by the Holy Spirit.

As we journey to the cross and look to the joy of the resurrection we find our calling and the reason why we are equipped: To be recklessly extravagant in showing God’s love, grace, and forgiveness to the world.

For when we recognize that we are created, called, and equipped by God then we have the true freedom to move out into the world to share those same gifts of love, grace, and forgiveness with reckless abandon.

Peace,
Pastor Bryant
Tuesday Morning Bible Class

During April we will study the Book of ROMANS. No Class on April 18 (Easter) or May 30 (Memorial Day). During the summer we will have our Guest Speakers on the 3rd Tuesday as usual. Arnie Garber, an Orthodox Jew, will be with us on June 20; Gus Barnes will share with us on July 18 and Dennis Wolfgang will be our Guest on August 15. During the summer we will study D. James Kennedy’s book “The Real Meaning of the Zodiac” in which he presents the original Christian meaning of the Signs of the Zodiac. All are welcome to join us for study in the Fireside Room from 10:00-11:00am on Tuesdays, and for lunch at a nearby restaurant afterward. John Bennethum is our Teacher.

Please keep in your prayers the families of Marlin J. Bradway, Jr., who died on Jan. 18, and Laverne Guthrie, who died on March 2. May the hope of the resurrection give them peace.

Sunday School

Our Spring Sunday School theme is “Toy Box”. Each week the children will learn a lesson from the Bible using various toys that are familiar to them such as Hot Wheels and musical instruments. Some of our lessons include skits and crafts. Every Sunday the children gather up front to hear Pastor Bakkum’s children’s sermon and receive a blessing. Sunday School is offered every Sunday except Easter Sunday. Anyone interested in assisting with Sunday School please contact the Church Office. The last day of Sunday School will be May 21st.

Save the Date!!

Vacation Bible School

We’re excited about First Lutheran’s Vacation Bible School is coming in June! VBS will again be held in the evening. Children attending will be served dinner before activities begin. If you’re interested in having your children attend, or if you would like to volunteer to help or donate food for the dinners, contact the church office. Dates and more information will be posted on our website. Hope to see you there!
Let’s Be Major League 2017!

Our annual fundraising campaign for our food pantry is winding down. This year’s theme is “Home Runs for Hunger!” So far this year, we’ve received $1,813.36 to help the food pantry. Some of the grants we’ve received in the past are not being awarded this year, so we really need your help. For each $10 or 10 lbs of food donated between January 15th and Easter, we will post a blue or yellow “Home Run” star in the narthex! For large single donations of $100 or more, we’ll post a large “Grand Slam” Star! Let’s knock it out of the park for hunger!

Feeding Our Neighbors

A Prayer For Our Food Pantry

Good and gracious God, we give you thanks for the community of which we are a part, the work that we are able to do, and the love that we are able to show. Help us to be humble and know that we are in need of your mercy and forgiveness every day of our life.

Amen

WANTED: FRIENDLY FACES!

The food pantry is in need of someone to help serve lunch and clean up from 11:15 to 12:30 on Fridays. This is perfect if your schedule does not allow you to start earlier. Please consider helping, even if you cannot commit to every Friday.

WhereDo You Fit?

Post Office Food Drive
Sat, May 13

First Lutheran will again be partnering with the food pantry at All Saints Church in Oak Creek for the Post Office food drive. We need people to spend the afternoon at All Saints receiving and sorting food (this does not involve heavy lifting) and people to unload the food and stock it at First, beginning in the late afternoon until about 6pm. Please see the sign up sheet on the welcome desk in the narthex. We usually receive a substantial amount of food, which helps support our pantry into the summer, but we can’t do it without helpers.
Mother’s Day at First Lutheran

We’ll be honoring mothers and other caretakers with special prayers during services Mother’s Day weekend, May 13th & 14th. Be sure to bring your mother, or someone who was like a mother to you, with you to church that weekend. As a special treat, stop downstairs at our spring Pancake Supper on Saturday evening before or after the service.

Easter Morning Worship

Bring your family to worship on Easter Morning at 9:00 a.m., and then stay for coffee and bakery after the service. Take some time to wish fellow members and visitors a very blessed Easter.

COMING SOON!

We are beginning to collect donations of bottled water and canned soda, which we will sell at “family friendly” prices at our block party in July to help us meet expenses. Drop your donations off in the office.

Memorial Day

We’ll be honoring our veterans, especially those who made the ultimate sacrifice, with special prayers at the services on Memorial Day weekend, May 27 and 28th. Join us for Coffee and fellowship after the Sunday service at First Lutheran.

THE U IN JESUS

Before U were thought of or time had begun
God stuck a U in the name of His Son.

And each time U pray, you’ll see it’s true,
You can’t spell out JesUs and not include U.

You are a big part of His wonderful name,
For U, He was born, that’s why he came.

And his great love for you is the reason He died.
It even takes U to spell crUcified.

Isn’t it thrilling and splendidly grand
He rose from the dead with U in his plan?

The stones split away, and the gold trUmpet blew,
and this word resurrection is spelled with a U.

When JesUs left earth, at his upward ascension,
He felt there was one thing He just had to mention.

Go into the world and tell them it’s true
That I love them all – Just like I love U.

So many great people are spelled with a U,
Don’t they have the right to know JesUs, too?
Baby Showers were taking place at both churches in February and March. There was no shortage of food at either one! We’re all looking forward to Baby Bakkum!
On Jan. 14, Sharan Kruschka became a member of First Lutheran. Sharan has been working with our quilters for the last 7 years, ever since she walked by one day and decided to check us out. She’s a native of Milwaukee, and has one son in Waukesha. We’re happy to have her as part of our community!

GOOD SAMARITAN OUTREACH CENTER

Good Samaritan Outreach Center, 5924 W. Burnham, West Allis, is a food pantry providing food and clothing to those in need. Good Samaritan serves low-income families, the disabled, unemployed, W-2 enrollees, welfare recipients and those with special needs. Please continue to bring donations of food for Good Samaritan Outreach Center. They are also requesting donations of Bibles. There is a box in the narthex at Nativity for your donations.

WHAT IS E.L.L.F.?

(Exercise, Listening, Learning and Fellowship) - also known as Senior Exercise, meets on Thursdays at Nativity Lutheran at 9:15 a.m. This is a great way for seniors to stay in shape and help keep mobile. Most exercises are done sitting in chairs, or standing with chairs used for balance. They’ve also incorporated the use of various sized balls and stretch bands, weights and sticks. Led by Don Brauch, the classes also use DVD’s to get different routines. Following class there are always coffee and treats to enjoy. It’s never too late to start taking care of yourself!

BIBLE QUIZ...

Acts 17 describes Paul speaking about God to the people of Athens in front of — incredibly! — a site that still exists. What is that site?

A. The Panathenaic Stadium
B. The Areopagus
C. The Acropolis and the Parthenon
D. The Temple of Hephaestus

Answer: (See Acts 17:22.)

Congratulations to Milena Valasek, Linda Kaehler’s granddaughter, who placed 7th in State gymnastics on the vault. Well done, Milenia!
